

Memoir '44 : Required expansions

How to use the document:

All the Memoir products are shown in the outer circles.

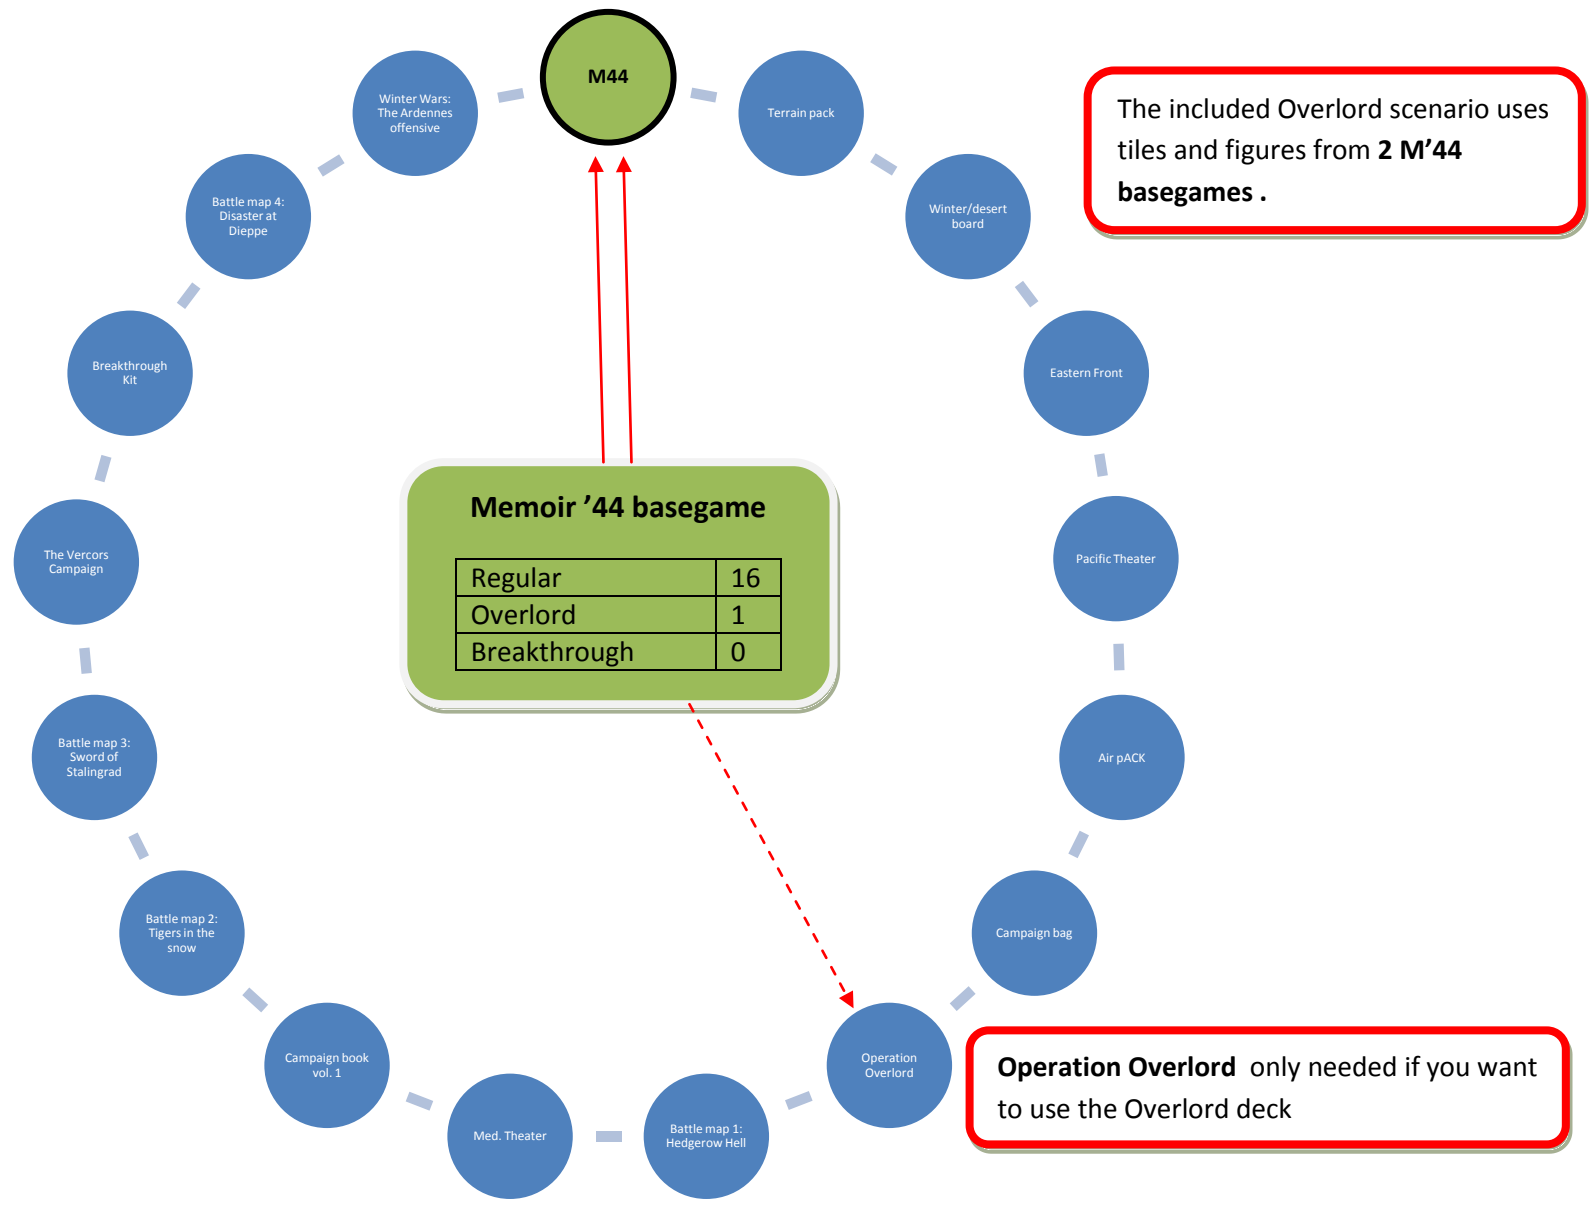

- The expansion valid for that page has a green circle and is named in the center as shown to the right
- The numbers in the central figure after the name of the expansion tells you how many scenarios are included.
 - Regular board scenarios (Basegame has 16)
 - Overlord scenarios (Basegame has 1)
 - Breakthrough scenarios (Basegame has 0)
- The arrows show which expansions are needed for each expansion.
 - Black arrow: Expansion used in regular scenarios
 - Needed to play the included regular board scenario
 - Needed for best visual effect
 - Red arrow: Expansion used in overlord scenarios
 - Needed to play the include overlord scenarios. Two of these arrows indicate two copies are needed to play.
 - Needed if you want figures of the correct colour in the included overlord scenarios.
 - If one of each arrow points to an expansion, one copy is needed to play and a second one for correct figures.
 - Orange arrow: Expansion used in breakthrough scenarios
 - Needed to play the include breakthrough scenarios. Two of these arrows indicate two copies are needed to play.
 - Needed if you want figures of the correct colour in the included breakthrough scenarios.
 - If one of each arrow points to an expansion, one copy is needed to play and a second one for correct figures.

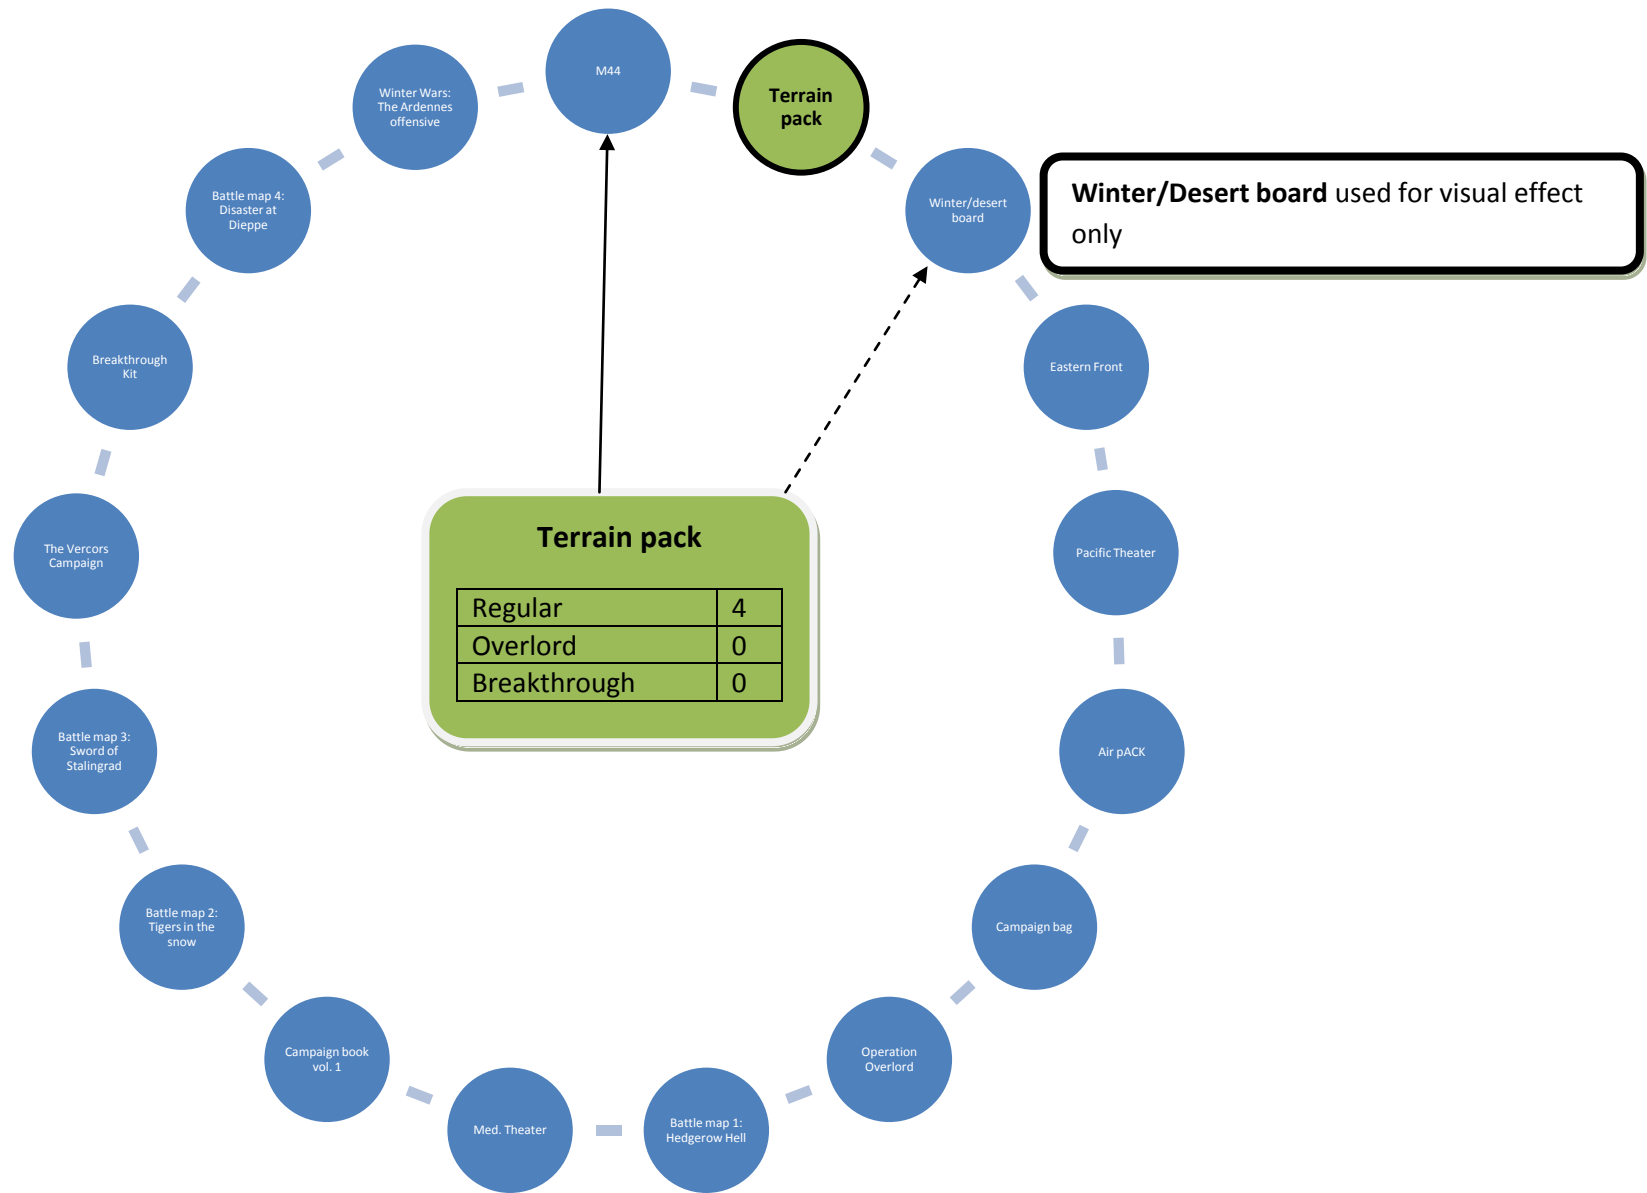

Memoir '44 basegame
Regular	16
Overlord	1
Breakthrough	0

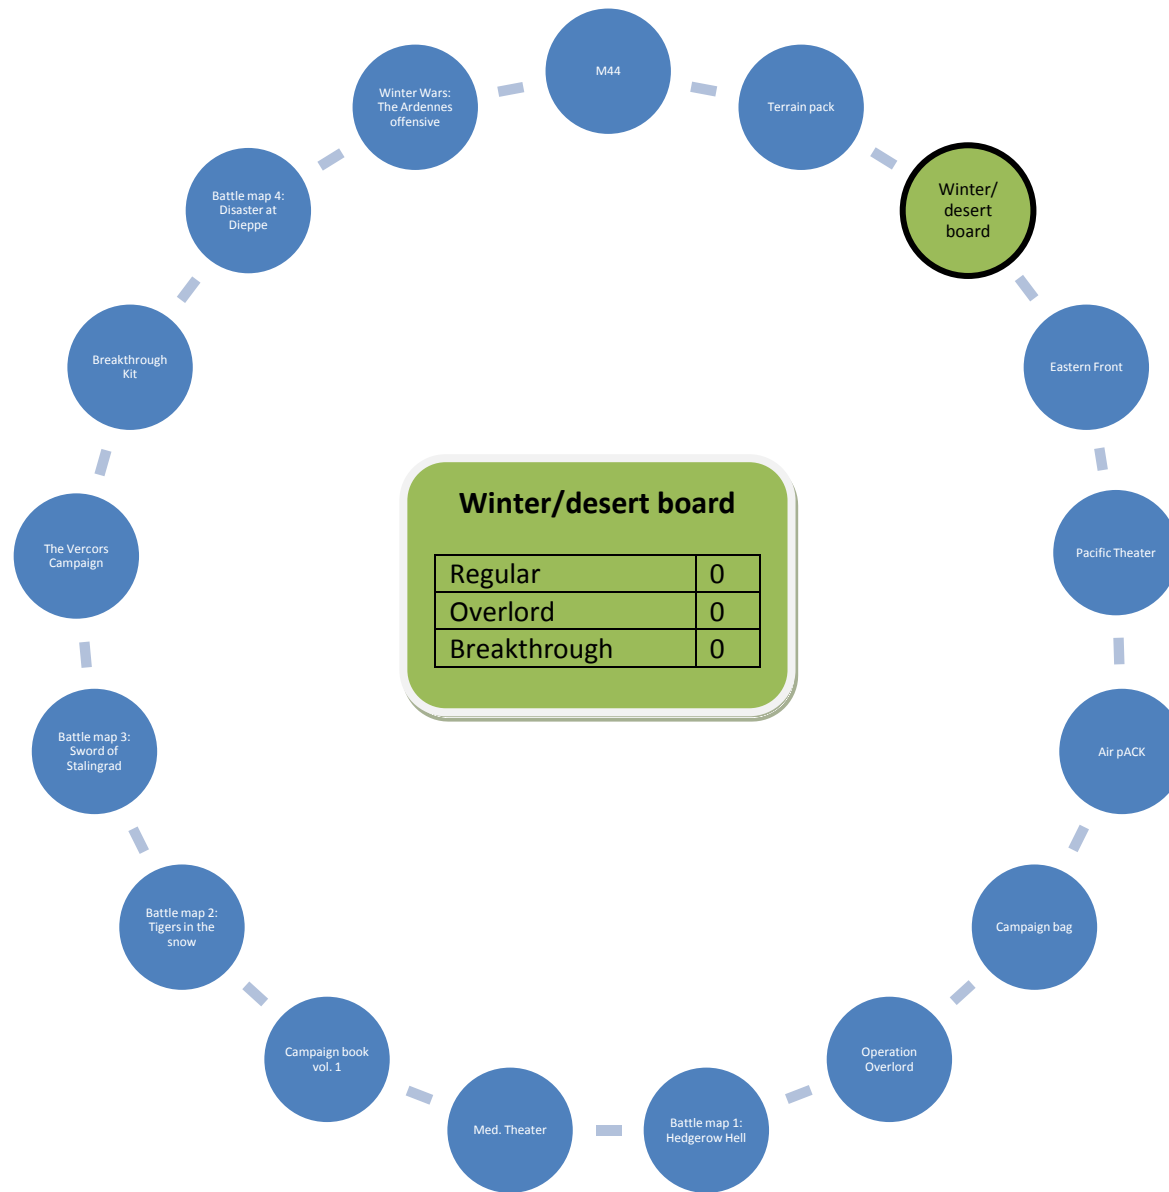

Special cases:    One copy needed for the included regular board scenarios. Two copies needed for the included overlord scenarios. (But only two copies needed of this expansion to play all included scenarios. Arrows of different colors don't stack)

   One copy needed for the included regular board scenarios. One copy needed for the included overlord scenarios and one copy needed for figures in the correct color in the included overlord scenario. (So you only need one copy to play all included scenario, but two if you want figures of the correct color in the overlord scenarios)

  One copy needed for the included regular board scenarios. One copy needed for the included breakthrough scenarios. (So only one copy needed to play all included scenarios)

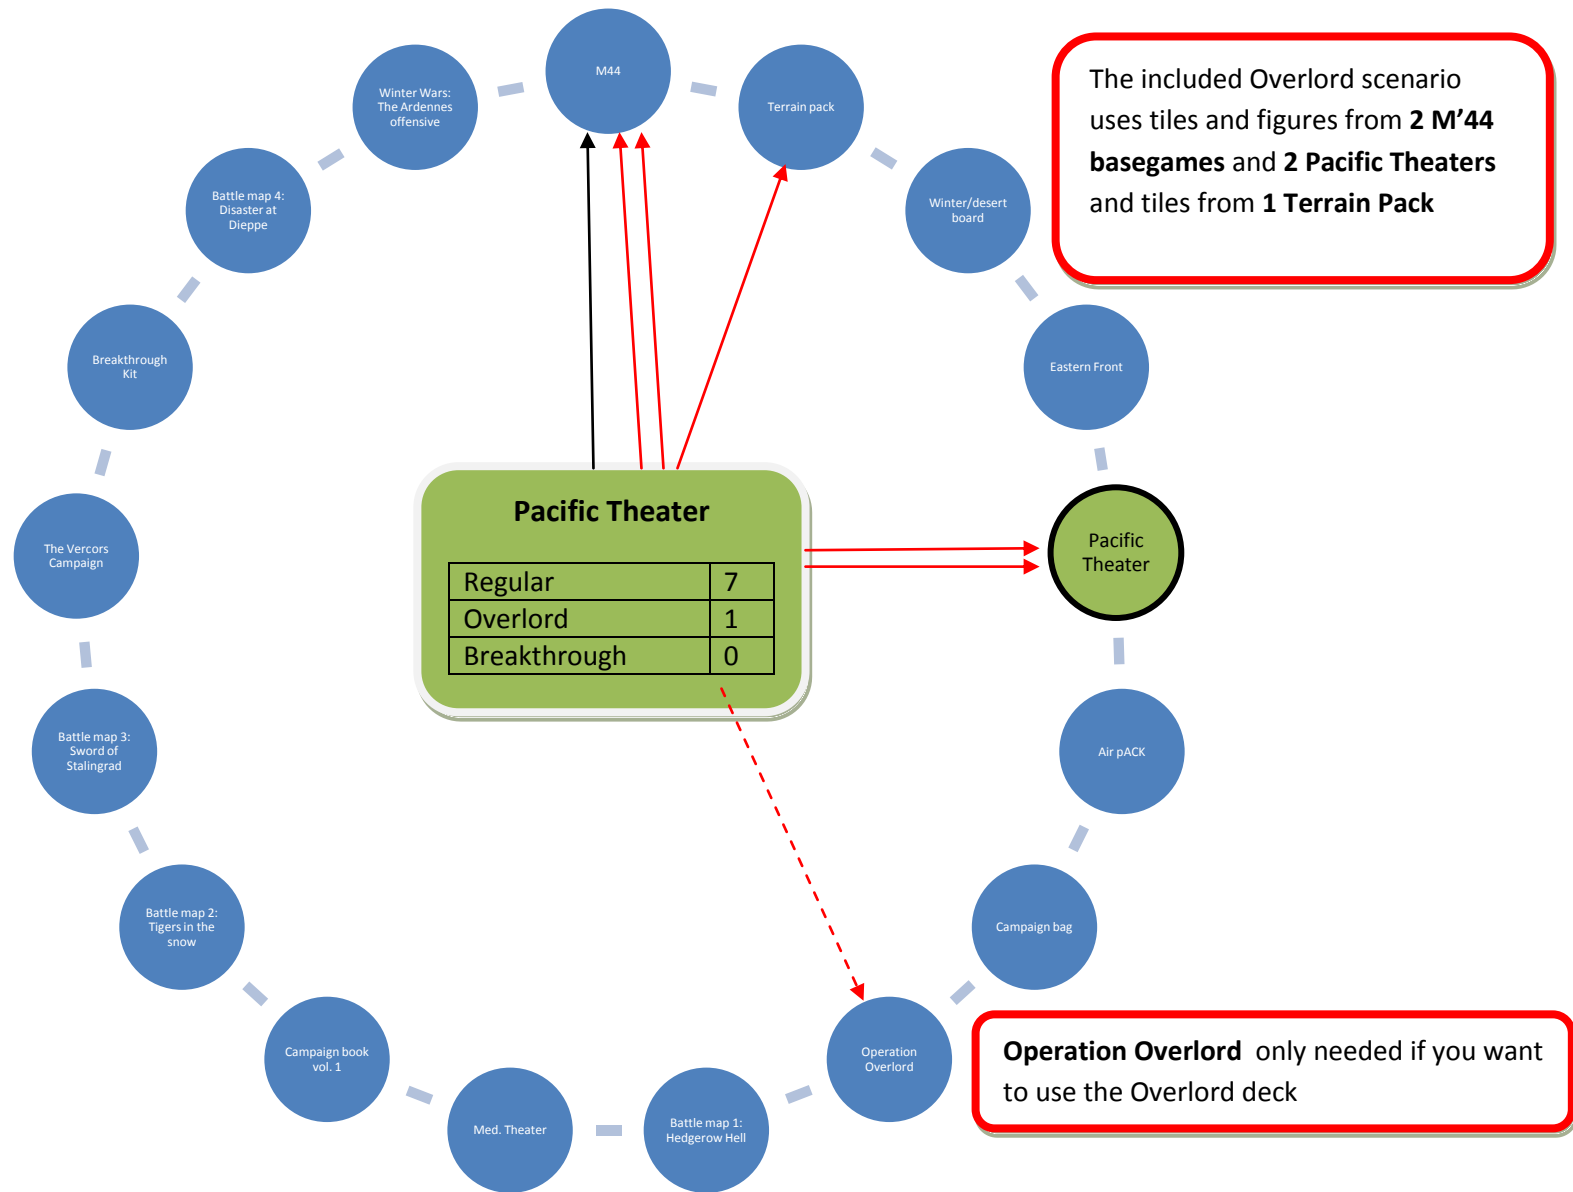

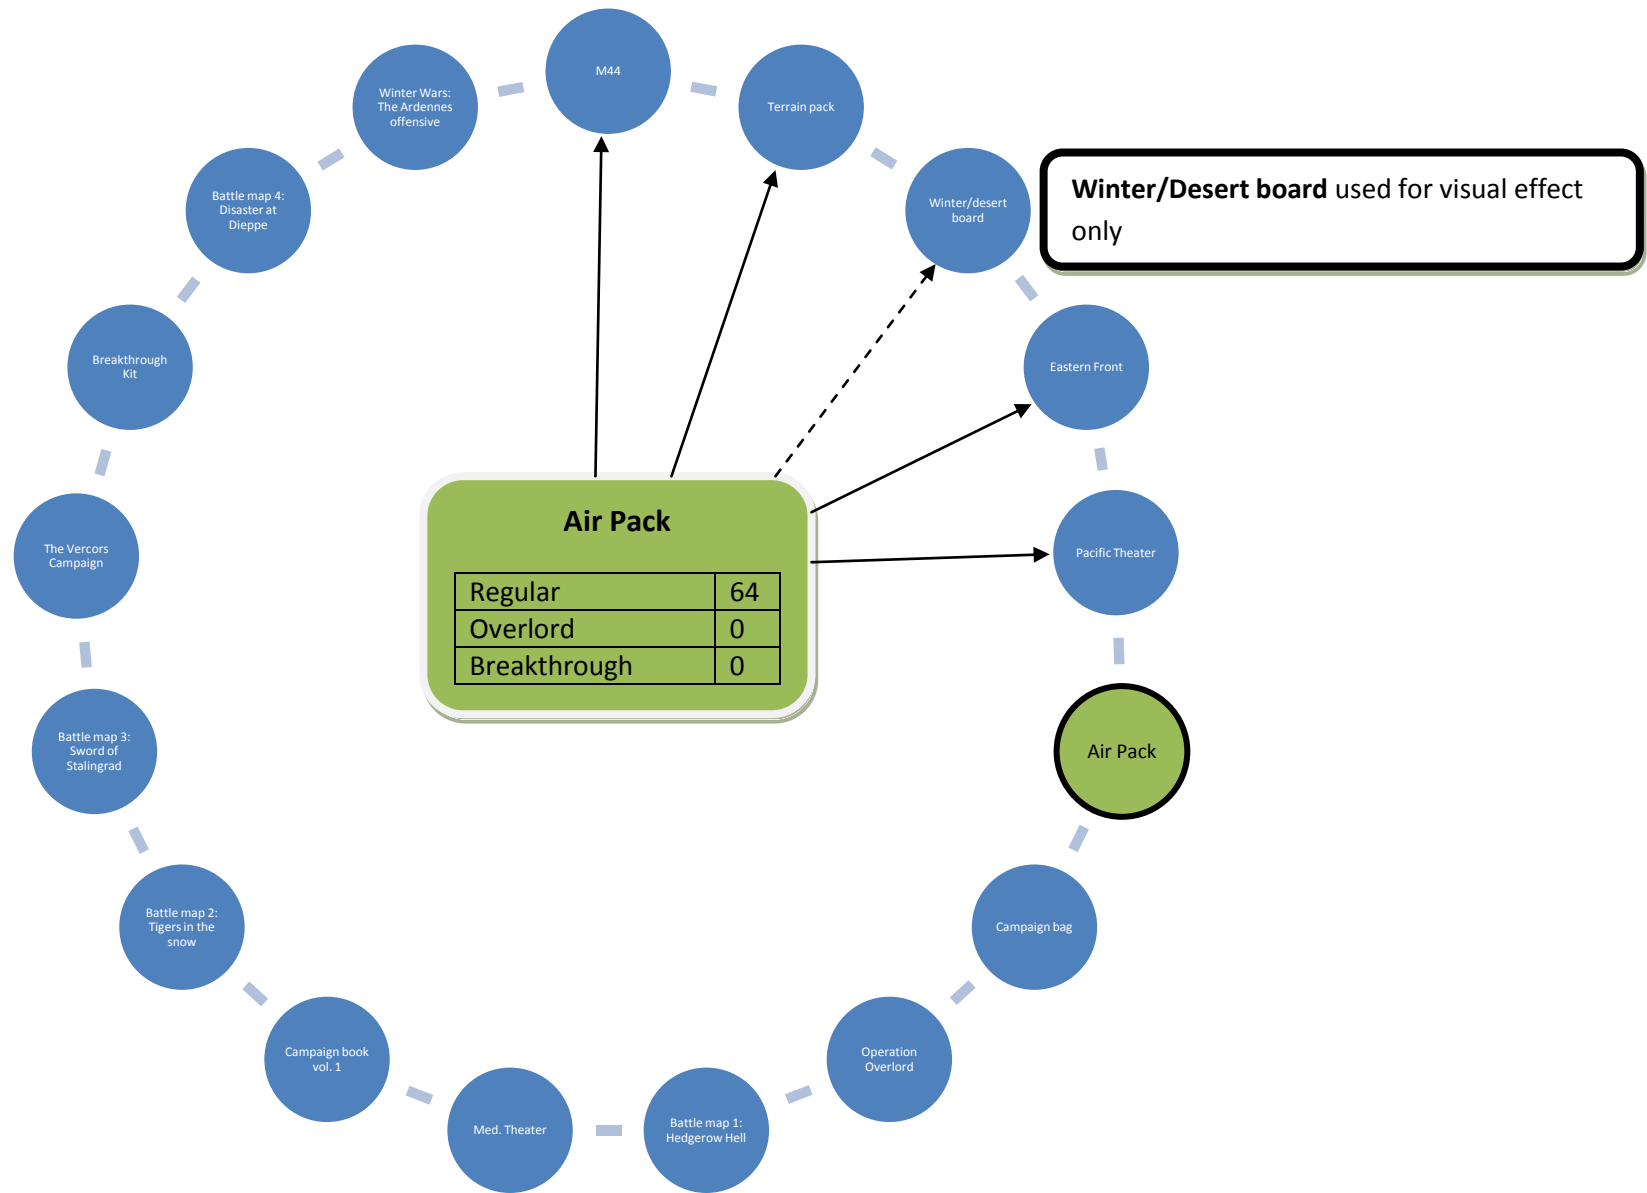

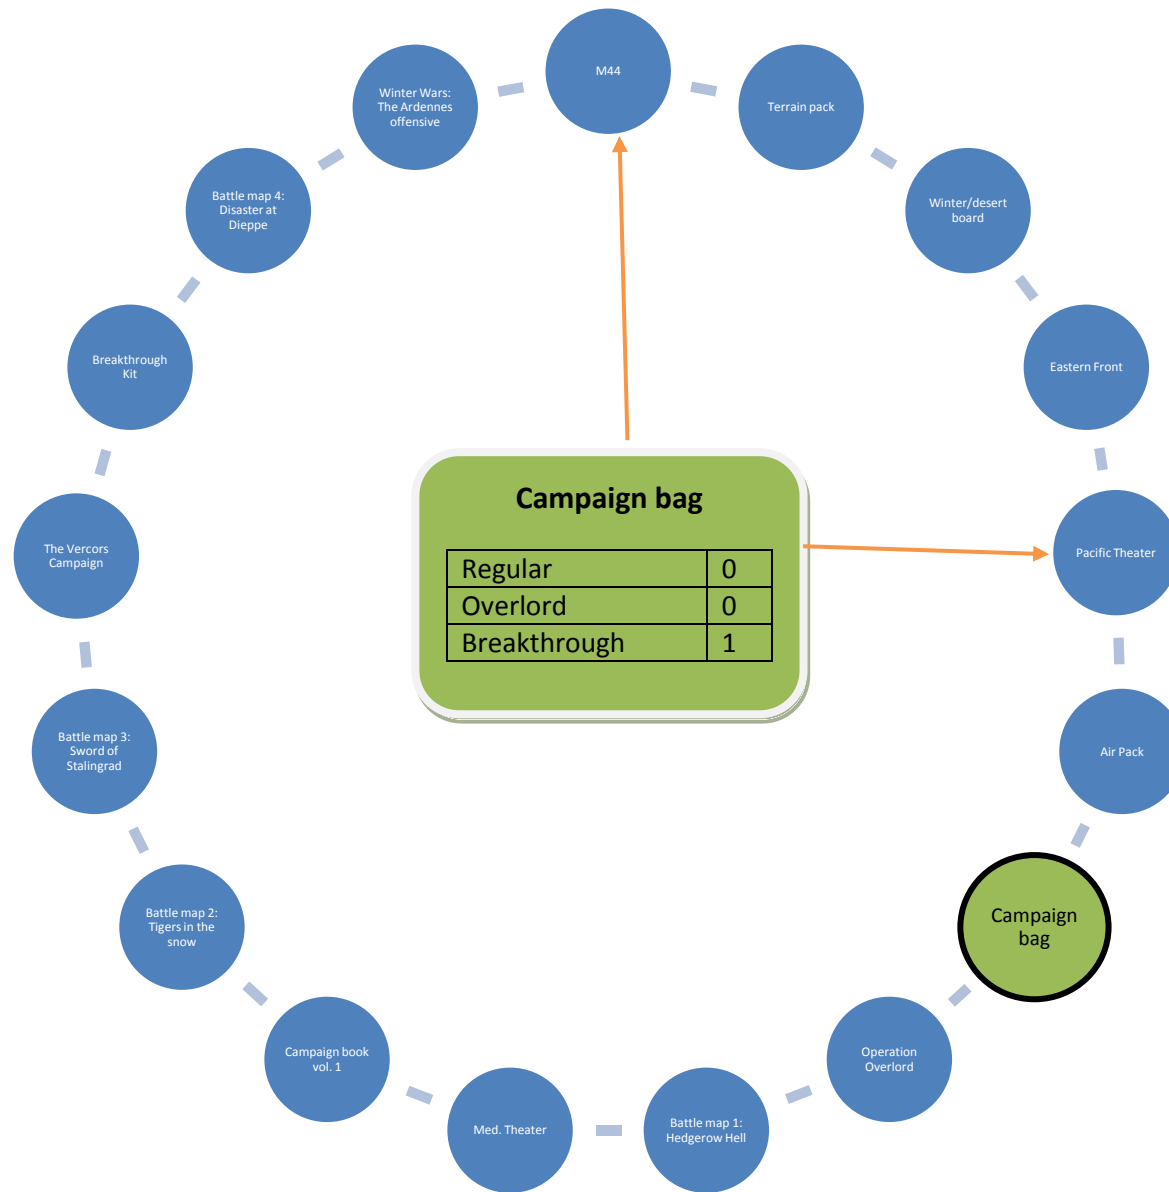

Winter/Desert board used for visual effect only

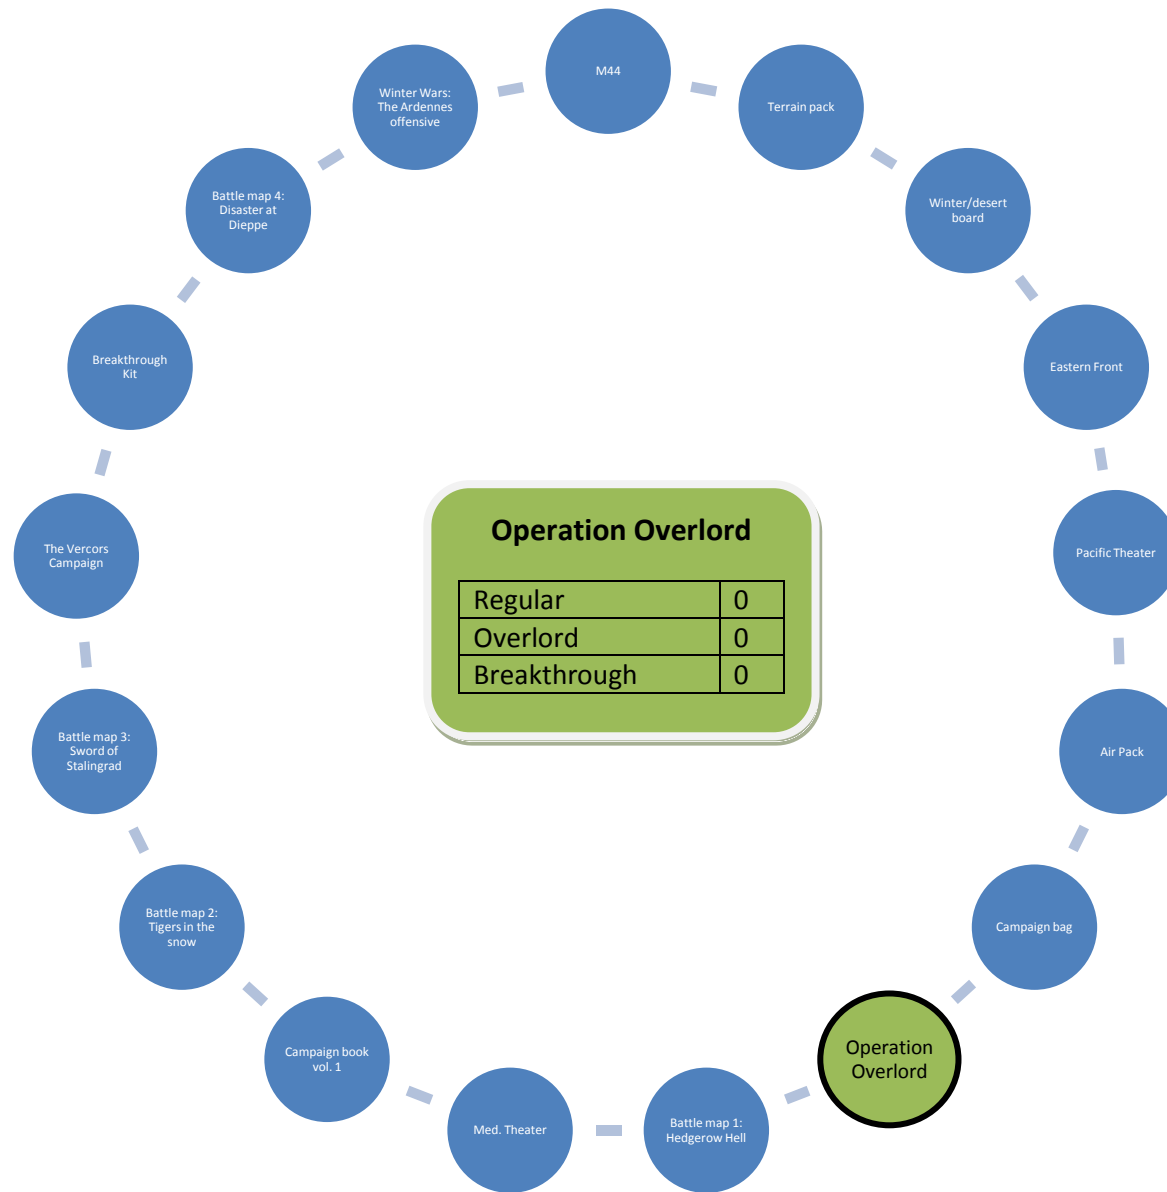

The included Overlord scenario uses boards, tiles and figures from 2 M'44 basegames. Figures from second copy of Eastern Front needed if you don't have Operation Overlord

Operation Overlord only needed if you want to use the Overlord deck. Cardboard units in Operation Overlord can be used instead of figures from second copy of Eastern Front.

Special note:

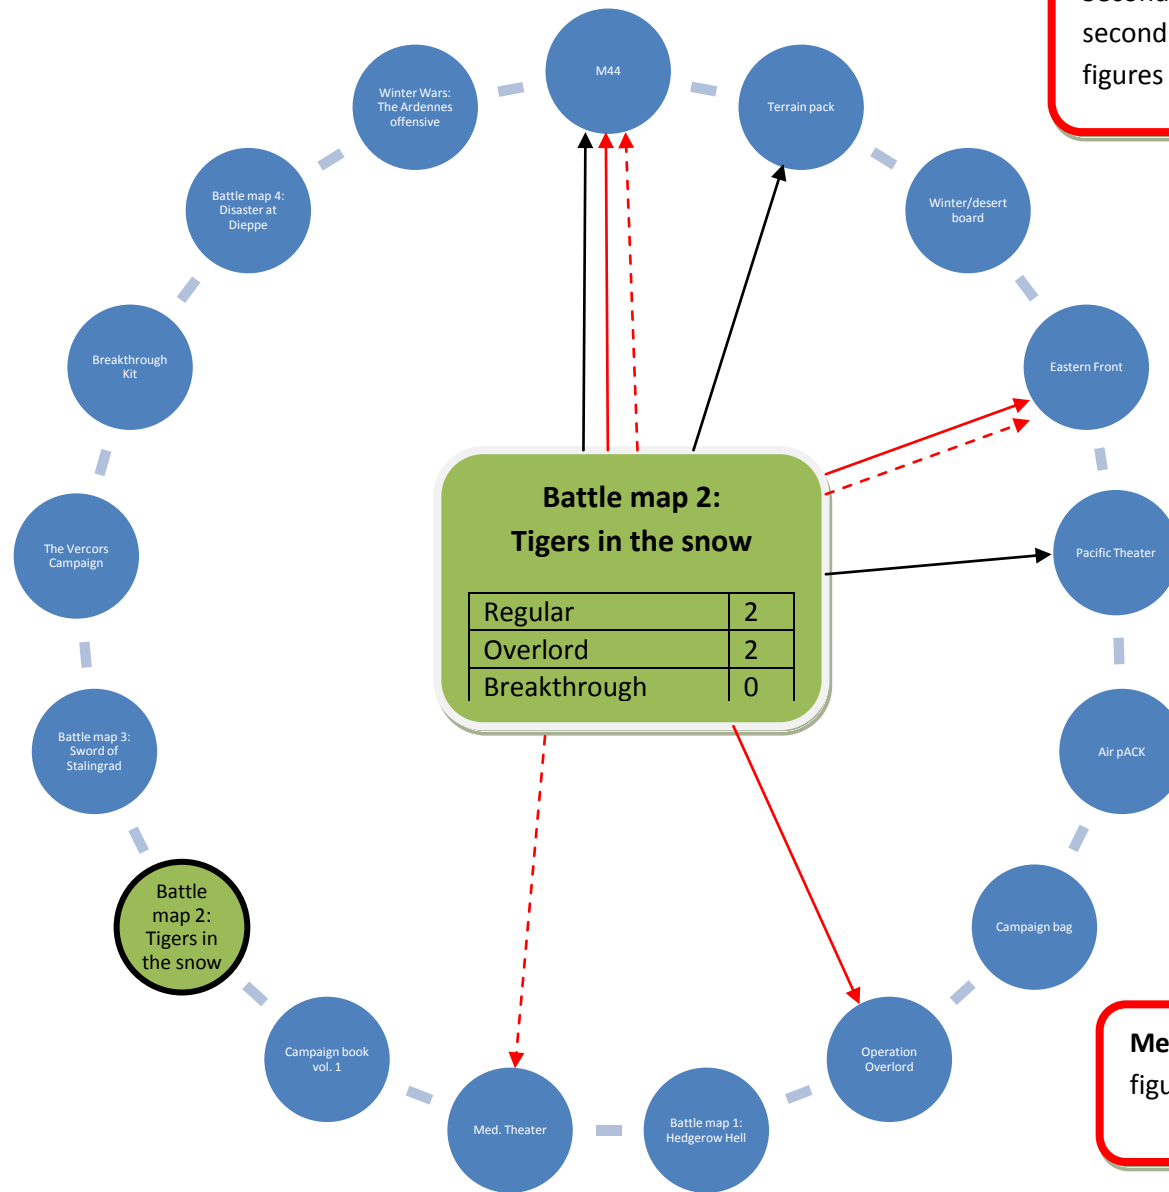

This expansion is required for the included Overlord Command Card deck and in case of the battlemaps for the cardboard units. A second basegame can be used instead of Operation Overlord if you shuffle the two decks from the basegames together.

Second copy of M'44 basegame used for figures of correct colors only.

Second copy of M'44 basegame and second copy Eastern Front used for figures of correct colors only.

Mediterranean Theater used for figures of correct colors only.

Second copy of M'44 basegame and second copy Eastern Front used for figures of correct colors only.

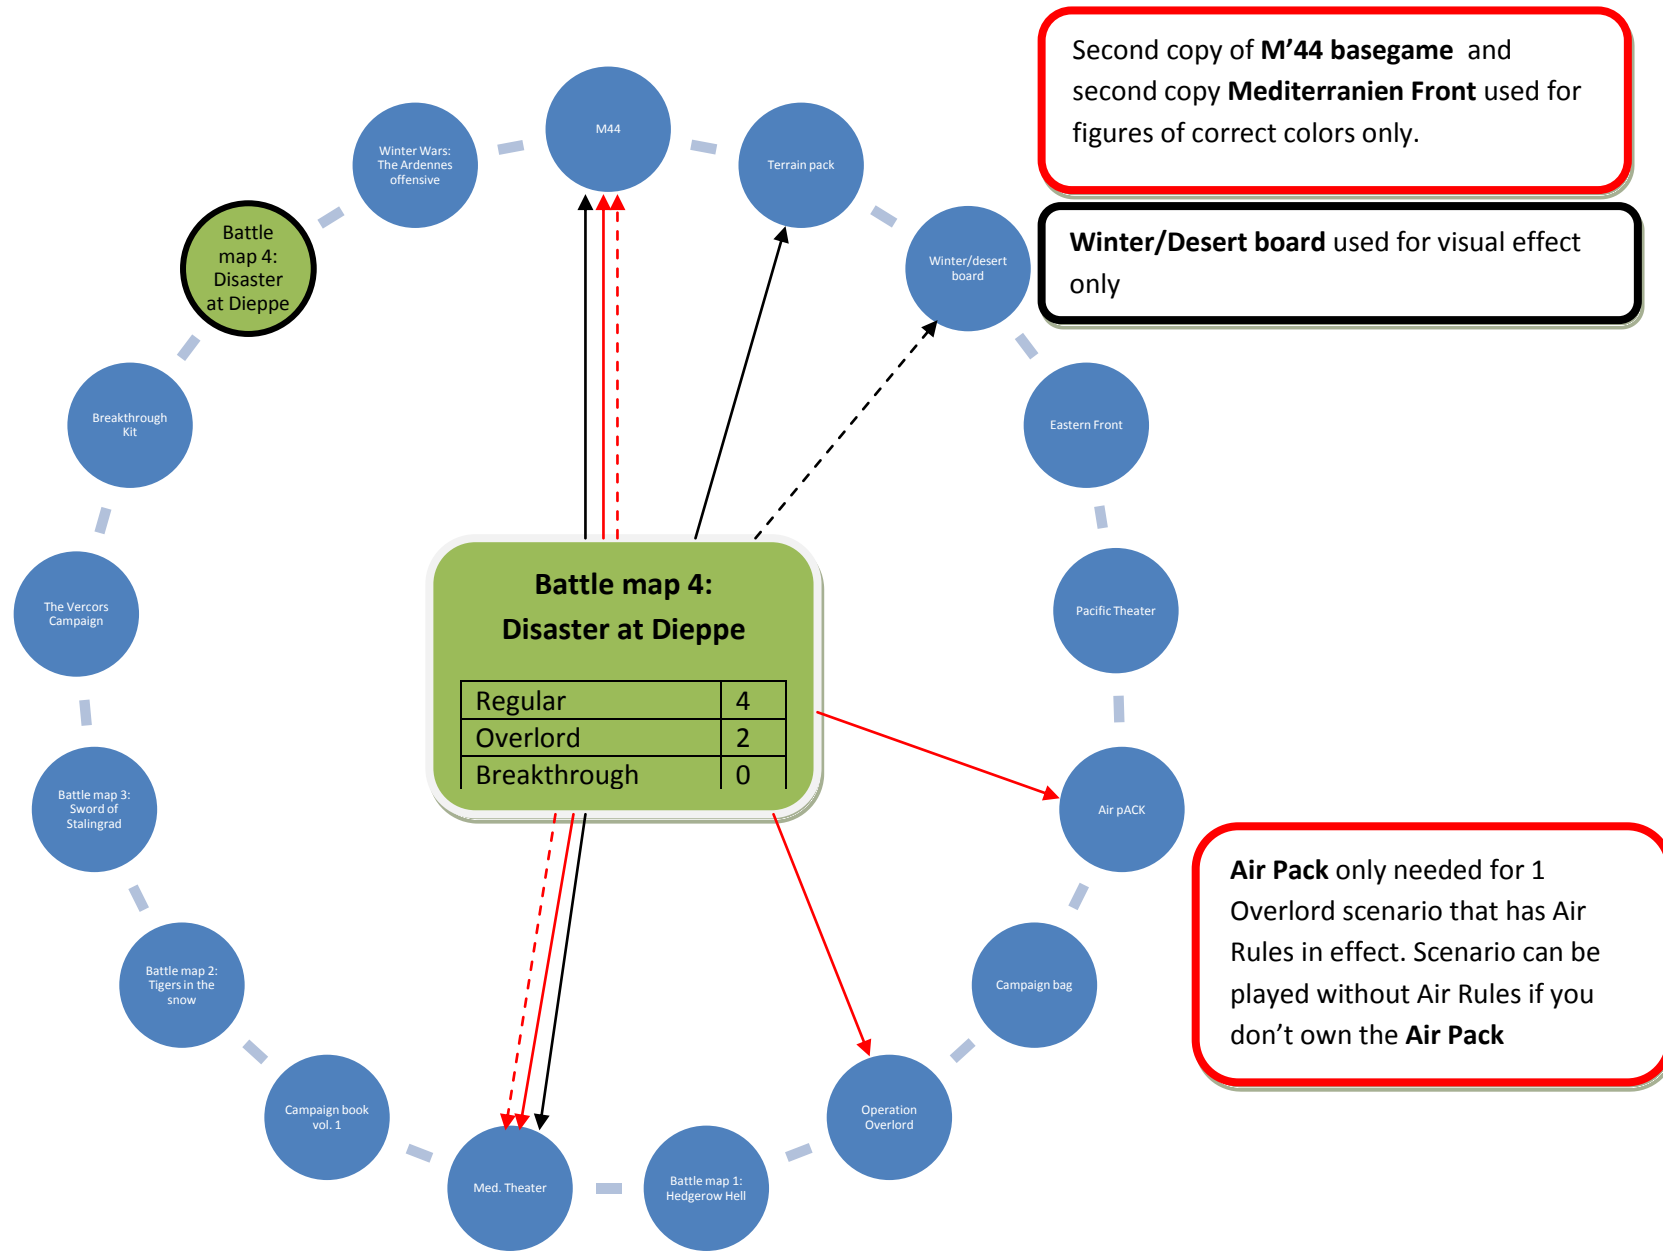

Winter Wars: The Ardennes Offensive provides the Breakthrough deck and visual effect to scenarios on the winter board

2 scenarios uses tiles and/or figures from a second copy of M'44 basegame

Second copy of Eastern Front used for figures of correct colors in 1 scenario only.

Battle map 4: Disaster at Dieppe only needed if you want to use miniatures for the Half Track units. Tokens for Half Track units are included in Winter Wars: The Ardennes offensive

Winter/Desert board used for visual effect only
